Local News & Great Deals from Linkup Paints Hamilton

Human Spirit Alive and Well

When someone commits a true act of bravery, it is a life changing experience that they will never forget. One of our staff and his wife went beyond the call of duty over the Christmas break, instinct took over and they showed an incredible act of bravery and compassion to someone in need of assistance. We never know how we are going to react in these types of situations but under pressure they reacted in a manner that we are extremely proud of. Well done Daryl!

We still have our 'big clearance' sale. There are great deals including below cost on some clearance items.
